

Rachel Marquardt

Employee representative

First appointment: 2017, current term of office: August 2018 - 2022

Nationality: German

Rachel Marquardt was born in 1980 and graduated with a degree in law from Saarbrücken, followed by a legal internship at the higher regional court of Saarland. As part of her internship, she worked in Saarbrücken (at solicitors' firms with a focus on labour and social law and insolvency law, among other roles), Speyer (German University of Administrative Sciences) and Berlin (the legal policy department at ver.di, with a focus on collective labour law).

Since 2008, the fully qualified lawyer has been a member of the federal executive board of ver.di on a full-time basis. She initially worked in the area of law and law policy before making a change in 2009 to the area of tariffs, industry, publishing, printing and paper and was responsible for the publishing and media business as well as youth and young talent work. Since February 2021, she has been head of tariff policy, industry, publishing, printing and paper. Rachel Marquardt is married and has three children.

Rachel Marquardt has been a member of the Ströer SE & Co. KGaA Supervisory Board since March 2017. Her current term of office runs from August 2018 until the end of the ordinary General Meeting in 2022.

Rachel Marquardt belongs to the following other:

a) Supervisory Boards to be formed under the law; and/or
b) comparable national and international controlling bodies of other businesses:

a) none;
b) none.